News Digest.

GEO. L. STEARNS, Chairman of the Massachusetts State Kansas Committee, appeared before the Senate Harper's Ferry Investigating Committee on Saturday. No new facts were elicited.

A brother of Mr. KEITT, the M. C. from South Carolina, has been murdered by his slaves.

We have accounts of destructive fires at Salem and Holton, Ind., and Geneva, N. Y.

Judge Larrabee at Madison.

The News of Saturday, in the course of some remarks upon the proceedings of the late Democratic State Convention, says:

> The editor of the Sentinel, who was at the Capital, has given a very fair account of the proceedings which actually transpired in the convention, but has fallen into some errors in regard to other matters, concerning which he must have derived his knowledge from common rumor. His statement in regard to Judge Larrabee is wholly erroneous. Judge Larrabee did not come home for the purpose of soliciting an election to the Charleston Convention. He was urged to allow his name to be presented to the convention, but declined on the ground that there were several gentlemen of undoubted capacity, whose views were in strict harmony with his own, who desired the position.

It is quite probable that Judge LARRABEE is indebted to some over-zealous friends for the seemingly false position in which he was placed at Madison; and that "common rumor" was at fault in announcing his name as a candidate for the Charleston Convention.—We believe that Judge LARRABEE's main object, in coming home to attend the State Convention, was to block the game of the handful of BUCHANAN men in this State, who, by the aid of Deputy Postmasters, U. S. Marshals, Special Mail Agents, Census-takers, &c. &c., hoped so far to control the proceedings of the Convention, as to prevent the passage of any resolutions, instructing the Charleston Delegates to vote for DOUGLAS. No doubt Mr. LARRABEE would have accepted the appointment of Delegate himself, if voluntarily tendered to him; but, as the News says, he was unwilling to stand in the way of several personal friends in his own District, who were ambitious of that honor.

POST-OFFICE CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE NATIONAL MONUMENT.—During the autumn of '59 the Postmasters throughout the United States were requested to put up boxes, within their respective offices, in order to afford the citizens in every part of the country an opportunity, at any time, to make voluntary contributions for the completion of the Washington Monument. The plan has been in operation about four months, and returns have come in from 841 places. The aggregate amount received is $2,240,31. Nearly 28,000 places have not been heard from at all.

To keep the work in fair progress forty-five thousand dollars a year would suffice, which would require an average return of $150 a year, or 12 1-2 cents a month from each town.

The National Intelligencer, of February 16, contains a list of all the towns heard from, with the amounts received. The following are the receipts from Wisconsin:

Beaver Dam	$1,00
Burlington	50
Cassville	1,50
Concord	8,00
Dartford	1,00
East Troy	25
Tunnel City	10
Janesville	55
Johnson's Centre	1,25
Manitowoc	11
Milwaukee	11,00
Mauston	1,00
Millcot	80
Oak Grove	50
Portage City	1,00

GIVING THEM RATS!—When CHARLES DICKENS, on his return to Europe, after having experienced the generous hospitality of the Americans, wrote his American notes, a great outcry was raised against him for his ingratitude in caricaturing a people from whom he had received so many civilities.—This outcry was just in some instances.—Among the statements of the redoubtable "Boz," which gave offence, was his mention of a man who had been locked up for drunkenness in the guard-house, and who was found dead the next morning, and his face partially eaten by rats. It is not many weeks since, however, that a similar instance occurred in this same city of New York. A man was picked up in the streets, in a state of insensibility, and conveyed to the nearest station-house. No examination was made into the unfortunate man's condition. That he was insensible was sufficient to enable the Dogberries who "comprehended the vagrom man" to arrive at the conclusion that he was drunk—dead drunk; for with them drunkenness and insensibility seem to be convertible terms. Whether personal experience had anything to do with the process of ratiocination by which they arrived at this sage conclusion, we are unable to say. Certain it is, the man was locked up for the night. But, lo! next morning the man was dead, and his face was found to have been partially devoured by rats. It was subsequently discovered that the man was not drunk at all when taken in charge, but was laboring under an epileptic, or some other fit, to which he was subject. Had medical aid been at hand, the man might have recovered and lived to continue the support of his family.

MISS SUSAN E. WHITE, of Bristol, Maine, while skating a few weeks since, accidentally fell, striking her head with great force on the ice. She was taken up insensible, but soon revived; she complained, however, of severe pains in the head, and soon afterwards became delirious, in which state she continued until her death. She was about sixteen years of age.

IT APPEARS from the Chicago Democrat that the "O'CONNELL Neice story" was a humbug. No such relation of the great "agitator" living in Chicago.

FIRE.—We regret to learn, that the residence of Wm. H. Brisbane, of Arena, was totally destroyed by fire a few days since, together with his furniture, which was boxed ready for removal. The many old friends of Dr. Brisbane in this city, where he formerly resided, will sincerely sympathize with him in his misfortune.—Madison Patriot, 23d.

THE CIRCULATION OF COPPER CENTS.—Petitions, of which the following is a copy, are in circulation in Boston, and are receiving numerous signatures from the business men of the community, and indeed from all classes:

To the Honorable Senate and House of Representatives of the United States in Congress assembled:

> Respectfully represent the undersigned citizens of, and persons engaged in business in, the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, that great inconvenience and loss arise from the fact thta a large number of Copper Cents are in circulation. This coin is not needed for the business of the community, and yet payments are frequently made in it, to the serious prejudice and injury of those persons who in the ordinary transactions of business, are compelled to receive it.
> Your petitioners therefore respectfully ask that means may be taken by the Government for the withdrawal of the coin in question from circulation.

SHOCKING ACCIDENT.—On the 3d instant, JACOB HAGUE, a young German, met with a shocking accident at one of the ore banks, near Marietta, Pa. The Wrightsville Star says:

> The unfortunate man, in attempting to oil the machinery, slipped, and his foot was caught between the wheels, by which his entire leg was drawn in and crushed up to the body, and in throwing out his hand, it too was caught and mangled in a dreadful manner. Our informant states that when the crushed leg was drawn in up to the knee-joint, the force and resistance was so great as to break the wheel. The unfortunate man sat there, thus mutilated, alone and in the cold, from five to six o'clock, when the other workmen arrived at the pit and extricated him from his dreadful situation. There is no hope of his surviving, and when told so he gave directions in regard to his burial, a tombstone, and the division of his worldly property, part of which consists of some $1,200 in money, among his friends in Germany.

LETTER FROM HEENAN'S AGENT IN ENGLAND.—We find the following in Wilkes' Spirit for this week:

> "Heenan is very well. The weather now, for a day or two, has been very cold; before that it rained every day. After stopping almost entirely unknown in London a week, we started for this place, where we hired an old farm-house, with a very fine barn attached, brought a middle-aged woman from London, and are now keeping bachelor's hall, living very comfortably in one of the most healthy and romantic localities in England, directly in the rear of the celebrated Cathedral, and about half a mile from the city or town of Salisbury. We live very secluded, have no visitors whatever, and shall most probably stay here until shortly before the 16th of April next. Yours truly,
> FRED. FALKLAND.
> P. S. In spite of everything that you hear and read, Sayers is actually the favorite in London at 6 to 4, and in some cases even at 2 to 1.

A SUCCESSFUL competitor at a skate race, a few days since, returned thanks in the following apt and expressive terms, "Gentlemen, I have won this cup by the use of my legs; I trust I may never lose the use of my legs by the use of this cup."

THE CITY.

A WORD TO "THE NEW HAND AT THE BELLOWS!"—Squibob the second may poach on our manor as much as he pleases, but when he poaches on that of "JOHN PHOENIX," or any other standard author, we have a right to complain, especially if he persistently tells people that the stolen article belongs to himself. The plea of being a "new hand at the bellows" is no excuse for plagiarism. If our friend shows such a decided prediliction to appropriate other people's goods, while he is a "new hand," what may we expect when he becomes experienced?

Our friend throws out the following mouthful of sarcasm at us:

> "If our cotemporary's nose is as good for smelling out game, as it is for smelling out analogies, we would like to go out hunting with him; he would make an almost invaluable setter—provided the readiness of his scent, did not sometimes lead him from true game, in pursuit of animals less useful and more oderiferous.

To which we can only say—we would much prefer to hunt with him, than after him, when there is a hat in the question; for we have come to the ultimate conclusion that he has a natural failing of always being out when most wanted.

We are happy to hear that "Squibob" No. 2 has obtained a copy of Phœnixiana for his office. The next excerpt will be apt to be more correct. In conclusion, we frankly admit that it is a breach of editorial courtesy to mention a cotemporary's name, if the said cotemporary is ashamed of it! But that we didn't know.

PARTICULARS OF THE FIRE ON FRIDAY NIGHT.—We have not as yet heard the origin of the disastrous fire on Friday evening. Various conjectures were afloat all day Saturday, but it was utterly impossible to arrive at the truth. The fire, when discovered, had been burning for some time and the building being fire proof, it was confined entirely to the interior. Messrs. WISE & Co., wholesale grocers, who occupied the building, had a large stock on hand, and being mostly of combustible matter, by the time the firemen got the water on, the flames inside the walls raged with the fury of a furnace. The building, with all its contents, (with the exception of the safe) was consumed.

The estimated loss is from $20,000 to $25,000, upon which there was insurance as follows:

ON THE BUILDING.
Germania	$3,000
Howard	3,000
United States	3,000
ON THE STOCK.
Liverpool and London Co	$5,000
Lamar	2,500
Resolute	2,500
Home	2,500
Ætna	2,500
Germania	2,000

The adjoining store, occupied by M. DUECKERT & Co. as a hardware store, was damaged to some extent by the heat and the falling walls. DUECKERT & Co. are fully insured.

OUR CHIEF ENGINEER.—The Chief Engineer of our Milwaukee Fire Department, TOM EVISTON, very fully justified, at the fire on Friday night, the good opinions of those friends whose votes elected him to office.—Among the first on the ground, after the alarm was given, and the last to leave it, he directed the operations of the Department with excellent judgment, and himself led the way to the lofty roof of the building adjoining the burning store, whence the water could be thrown upon the fire to the best advantage. It took four hours' hard work to extinguish the flames, and during all that time our gallant Chief never flinched from his post or shirked his duty. We think that he has fairly earned the compliment of a re-election.

MILL PROPERTY FOR SALE.—By reference to an advertisement in to-day's Sentinel, it will be seen that the Ohio Mill Company offer their saw mill, together with all the improvements, at La Crosse, in this State, for sale at public auction. This is a rare opportunity to make a profitable investment. The sale takes place on the 15th of March next.

MR. ——, one of the Editors of the Democrat, returns thanks to certain members of the Fire Department for their exertion in extinguishing what would have been a disastrous fire for him, but for their efforts.

ON AND AFTER TO-DAY an additional train will be put upon the Milwaukee & Chicago Railroad, leaving the depot, corner of Florida and Barclay streets, at 7:20 A. M.

LECTURE.—GEORGE D. PRENTICE lectured on Saturday evening to a "moderate" audience at Albany Hall, on American Statesmanship. To say that it was an able and even brilliant effort, would be but partial justice. It was, like all of PRENTICE's efforts, a literary production of great power, in which every phrase embodied an idea, and each idea was clearly, pointedly, and often beautifully expressed.

He defined Statesmanship, and showed that true Statesmanship could not exist without Patriotism and Integrity. The scathing review of our Statesmanship—the merciless exposure of chicanery and fraud and ambition—the satirical analysis of our politicians, and the keen wit which ever and anon flashed out when least expected, made one of the most interesting lectures we ever listened to. GEORGE D. PRENTICE may be ranked among the foremost of our men who not only do their own thinking, but express their thoughts boldly and beautifully.

CITY TREASURER'S OFFICE, DEP'T OF FINANCE,
MILWAUKEE, Feb. 22, 1860.

To the Joint Committee of Finance of the Board of Aldermen and Councilors of the City of Milwaukee:

GENTS.—The citizens of the Ninth Ward, at a Democratic meeting held February 17, gave me a vote of want of confidence for the following reasons, as they have stated them through the public press:

First.—Because they have been informed that there was a deficiency in the City Treasury at the time when I entered upon the duties of my office, of which I had full knowledge, and that I gave no notice of its existence to any of the officers of the city.

Second.—Because they certainly know, from undisputed authority, that I refused admittance to your Investigating Committee during the term of four weeks, to the books of this office, and denied to them all assistance or information.

As I do not like to be attacked by persons who have no desire to inform themselves as to the correctness of their charges, or are influenced by parties who wish for selfish purposes to defame my character, I most respectfully ask your committee to say whether any of the above charges are true.

Being members of the Common Council of the city af Milwaukee, you must know, or can inform yourselves by the city records, as to the correctness of the first charge.

Being members of the Investigating Committee appointed by that body, you certainly can give information as to the second charge.

Now, as I wish you to state the truth, so as to give me an opportunity to hurl back those charges on the heads of the parties who produced them, and to stamp them as slanderers, I hope you will comply with my request.

As I am anxious for a timely reply, you will oblige me by giving the matter your attention. I remain, gents,

Yours, very respectfully,
MORITZ VON BAUMBACH.

EDITOR SENTINEL:—Our attention has been called to a notice in some of the German papers of a meeting of the Democratic citizens of the Ninth Ward, in which they give Mr. BAUMBACH a vote of want of confidence for reasons that he entered upon the duties of his office, knowing that Mr. SCHWARTING was a defaulter, without giving notice to the proper officers of that fact, and that he refused admittance to the investigating committee for the term of four weeks, and withheld all information from them.

In justice to Mr. BAUMBACH, we feel it our duty to state that these charges are entirely false; that on the contrary, Mr. BAUMBACH informed the committee of the deficit at its first meeting, and that from that time to the close of their investigation, the committee has had access to all the books and papers in his office, and that Mr. BAUMBACH has materially assisted the committee in its labors, and has freely given all the explanations required of him by them, and furthermore, that the fact of Mr. BAUMBACH giving notice of the deficit, led to the appointment of the investigating committee.

TELEGRAPH!

REPORTED BY THE N. Y. ASSOCIATED PRESS, FOR THE DAILY SENTINEL.

Senate Investigating Committee.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 24—3 P. M.

George L. Stearns, of Boston, was before the Senate Investigating Committee to-day. He testified that he was made Chairman of the State Kansas Com. of Massachusetts, who took the place of the Boston Committee, and continued the work throughout the State, including August and December of that year, and raised $47,000.

In the same State, his wife commenced the formation of socities for contributing clothing, which resulted in sending some $20,000 or $30,000 more in supplies of various kinds.

In January 1857, the work was stopped by advices from Kansas, that no more contributions were needed except defence. If it had not been thus stopped, the arrangements would have enabled the collection of $100,000, in the next six months.

Soon after the State Committee commenced the work, in August, 1858, a messenger from Kansas, who came through Iowa, for the Missouri river was closed to all Free State travelers, asked earnestly for arms and amunition for the defence of the Free State party.

Subsequently, in 1857, they authorized Brown to sell 100 rifles off expeditiously, and voted $500 more if necessary, to enable him to go to Kansas with his armament—about this, and his representing that the force organized in Kansas, ought to be provided with revolvers, witness authorized them to purchase 200 from the Massachusetts Arms Co. When they were delivered in Iowa, witness paid them out of his own funds, $1,300.—At the same time he gave Brown by letter of credit, authority, to draw on him at sight for $7,000, in sums as might be wanted for the subsistence of 100 men, provided it should be necessary at any time to call them into the field for active service in defence of Kansas in 1857. As the exigency contemplated did not occur, no money was drawn for it, and the letter was withdrawn.

The Com. next day voted to send 200 Sharp's rifles, carbines and ammunition, which were sent to the Kansas National Com. at Chicago, to be forwarded through Iowa to Kansas. From some unexpected cause these arms were delayed in Iowa. In November or December they sent an agent to Iowa at our charge, to take them as our property. In Jan. 1858, Brown, of whom we had heard but had not seen, came to Boston and I was introduced to him. After repeated conferences with him, being strongly impressed with his sagacity, courage and strong integrity, the witness, through a note of the Com., made him an agent to receive and hold these arms and ammunition for the defence of Kansas, appropriating $500 to pay his expenses.

Should think it might amount to $1,500 or $3,000. About May 1858, witness saw a letter from Senator Wilson to Dr. Howe, also one or two from Col. Forbes; never heard of Forbs till he saw his letter, which was so coarse and insulting in language, and so incorrect in ascribing to others what witness had done, that witness concluded that he wanted to extort money, but at Dr. Howe's request, witness wrote to Brown dated May 14, 1858, of which the committee have a copy sent by Dr. Howe.

In addition, witness raised money and sent an agent to Kansas to assist the free State party in the Lecompton election, and again in the election of 1858; did not know of the Harper's Ferry raid; if he had, should not have approved of it. He knew of Brown's purpose to free slaves, and supposed he would do so at every chance, from the course he pursued. Saw Brown in Boston several times, once at Dr. Howe's office, and once at a club dinner in the Parker House. Did not know if Brown dined there. Mr. Brown went in after dinner was over, and remained about twenty minutes. Saw F. W. Bird and Dr. Howe there, and others; he did not know then and cannot now recollect. The club had no particular name, but went under the name of Bird's dinners. The Parker House is the best house in town for dinners. In answer to Senator Davis, witness said he had not corresponded with him since May, 1859, and had not seen and never corresponded with John Brown, Jr., in Missouri.

In the summer of 1857 he contributed with others, $1000 to purchase an addition to the farm then and now occupied by Brown's family at North Elba. The money was forwarded by his agent for that purpose, and satisfactory evidence given of a proper conveyance of the land to the family of Brown. Witness' contribution to that fund was $260, as appears by the subscription paper. Besides these transactions, which were for specific purposes, witness gave Brown money from time to time; how much he did not know; never kept any account of personal expenses or money given to others; was all charged to his personal account.

Destructive Fires.

From Havana.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 25.—9 P. M.

Advices from Havana City of 20th have been received here. Some excitement exists among the Americans in Havana, in consequence of a Spanish born American citizen having been claimed by the Spanish authorities for military services, and required to furnish a substitute or pay af $1,000 as commutation. Consul Helm had demanded the man's release which was refused. The man was consequently obliged to pay the fine, which he did under protest.

Consul Helm's correspondence with the Cuban authorities has been transmitted to Washington to-day.

The N. O. Picayune of Sunday, says that U. S. marines have been landed, not only at Tampico and Minnehatton, but also at Alvarado, the first place to be attacked for the express purpose of working the artillery recently sent down from the Castle of San Juan.

It is stated that Miramon reached the Natural Bridge on the 8th, on his way to Vera Cruz, where the Liberalists have erected a new strong fort.

The Hungarian's Passengers.

NEW YORK, Feb. 25—9 P. M.

The agents of the Grand Trunk Railway line say the following passengers were booked for the Hungarian—the three first in Liverpool and the remainder in Cork:—Hugh McCoffrey, Richard Madden, Wm. Kirby, John Daley, Martin Donnors, Ellen Sheehan, Wm. Vogle, Geo. McDermot, Michael Lacey, Delaney and Richardson and Patrick McGiveren.

It is thought there must be some mistake about the steamer Hungarian having 360 passengers on board when she was lost, as she was never known to carry half that number, nor any of the steamers belonging to the same line that she did.

Van Ness et al. vs. Corkins. Motion to strike out bill of exceptions by Conger, and Howes for Deft. in error on affidavit on file. Motion argued by Conger and Howes for deft. in error, and J. H. Knowlton for plff. in error and submitted.

Clark vs. Farrington. Argument resumed.

THE GREAT ENGLISH RACE.—The colt upon which rest the hopes of success of our American division in the great Spring race for three-year-olds, the Derby at Epsom, has just gone through one of those alarming vicissitudes which are not uncommon in turf matters. At Tattersall's, on Monday, Jan. 3, Umpire was backed for the two thousand guinea stakes at 6 to 1; and The Wizard, and Lupullus, were backed at evens against the field. On the same day he stood firm for the Derby at 8 to 1, and no more could be got against him. On the following Thursday, the 26th, rumors prevailed on the Corner to the effect that there was something amiss with the horse, and 10 to 1 was laid against him, the latter offering to go on at that price. On the same day, Mainstone, by King Tom, the colt of the veteran Premier, Lord Palmerston, who has a great ambition to win the Derby, was backed at 10 to 1, and he had the call of Umpire, if anything. Even money was laid between them. On Friday, the two receded another point in the betting. 11 to 1 was taken against Mainstone and offered against Umpire. 500 to 100 was laid against Mainstone and Umpire coupled; and there were offers to back Mainstone, Buccaneer, Thormanby, or The Wizard, against our American colt. It seems to be evident that some parties had undertaken to give Umpire "pepper," probably with a view to drive him back permanently in the betting, and bring some others forward.

While this was going on in London, the American horse held his own, at 10 to 1, at Manchester. On the 27th, and again on the 29th, his price was 10 to 1, while no one would back Mainstone at less than 12 to 1, though he was the favorite in London, which was, of course, well known in the Lancashire city. On Monday, Jan. 30, another change in the Derby betting took place at Tattersall's. Mainstone, Thormanby, and The Wizard, led the van, 10 to 1 being offered against each of them. Against Umpire 12 to 1 was at one time offered, but subsequently 10 to 1 was taken to a large amount. It thus appears that, after being temperarily deprived of the pride of place, Umpire has substantially resumed his position as favorite.

ANOTHER SPLENDID STORY!
WRITTEN EXPRESSLY FOR
The New York Weekly!
WILL BE COMMENCED
IN
THE NEW YORK WEEKLY,
On Thursday, March 1st, 1860,
the publication of a
NEW AND BEAUTIFUL STORY, ENTITLED
AMY RAYNER;
OR,
THE TANGLED PATH,
From the pen of
OUR GIFTED LADY CONTRIBUTOR,
Miss Lucy A. Randall,
Daughter of the widely-known and greatly esteemed Superintendent of Public Schools,
S S. RANDALL, ESQ.

MISS RANDALL HAS ALREADY earned for herself an enviable position as a sketch-writer under various noms de plume, but she is better known, perhaps, as "HELEN FOREST GRAVES," in the NEW YORK WEEKLY, and "Mrs. George Washington Willis," in a cotemporary journal.

Tens of thousands have admired the beautifully-written sketches of this talented young lady, and every of one of these will hail with delight the announcement that she has undertaken a serial narrative. It has often been remarked by many that so exquisite a writer as MISS RANDALL would accomplish wonders in a novel; and we beg to assure all who have formed this opinion that they are not mistaken.

The Tangled Path
WILL BE READY IN
THE NEW YORK WEEKLY,
On Thursday, March 1, 1860.
FOR SALE EVERYWHERE.

OUR TERMS:

The NEW YORK WEEKLY is sold by all respectable News Agents in the United States. The price is FOUR CENTS, but in some cases, where Agents have to pay extra freight or postage, a higher price is necessarily charged. When there is a News-Agent in the town, we desire our friends to get THE WEEKLY through him. We do not wish to mail the paper except to places where there is no other means of getting it. When sent by mail, the price will invariably be $2 a year, in advance. Two copies will be sent for a year for $3; four copies for $6; eight copies for $12. Postmasters and others who get up clubs of ten, and send us $15 at one time, will be entitled to an extra copy for their trouble. The bills of all solvent banks taken at par for subscriptions. Canada subscribers must send twenty-six cents extra with every subscription, to prepay the American postage.

Specimen Numbers sent Free.

MONDAY MORNING, FEB. 27, 1860.

REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.

A Republican State Convention will be held at the Capitol, in Madison, on Wednesday, the 29th day of February, 1860, at 12 o'clock M., to choose four delegates from the State at large, and two from each Congressional District, to represent the State of Wisconsin in the Republican National Convention to be held at Chicago on the 13th of next June, to nominate two candidates for presidential electors for the State at large; to adopt such action as may be deemed advisable in view of the approaching election of Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the State; and for the transaction of such other business as may be thought calculated to advance the interests of the party and promote the success of its principles.

Each Assembly District of the State will be entitled to two delegates in such Convention, except where a district includes more than one County, when each county will be entitled to two delegates.

The committee would respectfully suggest that Assembly District Conventions to elect delegates to the State Convention be held as early as Saturday, the 15th day of February.

Bayard Taylor and the "Chivalry."

We copy from the New York Tribune a spicy correspondence between Bayard Taylor and a Mr. Howison, Chairman of the Lecture Committee of the Young Men's Christian (?) Association of Richmond, Virginia. It will be remembered that this Association, through their Committee, had engaged Mr. Taylor to lecture before them during the Winter, and he, having accepted the invitation, made his arrangements accordingly. Very recently the sagacious Committee discovered that Mr. Taylor was connected with New York Tribune, entertained Republican sentiments, and was strongly suspected of doing his own thinking in religious, as in other matters. Hereupon the Young Men's Christian Association of Richmond, Virginia,—the mother of Presidents and the home of the "Chivalry"—politely notified Mr. Taylor that he would not be permitted to lecture, as they had engaged him to do, in the Capital of the ancient Dominion. This discourteous treatment elicited a brief, but sharp letter from Mr. Taylor, which led to the correspondence copied in to-day's Sentinel. We commend it to our readers, one and all, and to the special attention of our Democratic friends, that they may learn how completely the memories and opinions of Washington and Jefferson and other deceased Virginia worthies, are eclipsed by the present generation of Virginia Democrats!

The Republican State Convention.

This body meets at Madison, on Wednesday next, to elect Delegates to the National Republican Convention, which is to be held at Chicago on the 13th of June, and upon whom will devolve the important duty of nominating candidates for President and Vice-President of the United States. We have heretofore expressed the opinion that as William H. Seward, of New York, is unquestionably the first choice of the Republicans of Wisconsin for the Presidency, our delegation to Chicago should faithfully and steadfastly reflect that sentiment. We are fully satisfied that Senator Seward is not only our strongest candidate before the people, but that, if elected, he will make the best President the Republic has had for many years. He is, indeed, most vigorously opposed by the leaders of the Sham Democracy, and it is not to be denied that they have valid reasons for this opposition. They know, none better, that Senator Seward, as President, will conquer the prejudices of the South, satisfy the expectations of the North, and permanently establish the Republican party, as the dominant party of the Union.

In his election, therefore, they see a long farewell to "the spoils of office" and the final downfall of Sham Democracy. Hence their bitter, reckless and persistent misrepresentation of his acts and opinions; and their fierce hostility to his nomination. But the very reasons which prompt this Democratic opposition, should rally round him every true Republican in the United States. The people of Wisconsin, we firmly believe, recognize their duty in the premises, and by their representatives in the Convention which meets next Wednesday, will send a unanimous Seward delegation to Chicago.

In this connection we copy the following pertinent letter from the able and well-informed Washington correspondent of the New York Courier & Enquirer:

WASHINGTON, Feb. 14th.

The leader in Saturday's Courier gives much satisfaction to leading Republican members of Congress. They think that it announces the true policy of the Republican party. One thing is certain—the party will deserve to be beaten in 1860 if it deserts its true colors for the sake of what old fogies may term expediency. No victory won by an expediency candidate has ever proved fruitful of good. Whatever of success has thus far attended the Republican party has come from its adherence to the principle of non-extension of slavery upon which it was organized. The moment one jot of this vital principle is conceded, the party is defunct. Its vitality will have departed and its functions will have degenerated into spoil-seeking. It is asking too much of those who denominate themselves the Opposition and the People's parties, to accord with the Republicans, who so far outnumber them, the first place upon a Union ticket?

If so, there can be no union. It is the sheerest folly to talk of it. The Republican party is not fighting for spoils merely. Its votes cannot be transferred to any party or man that does not subscribe to their principles. The nomination, therefore, of a person who is so conservative upon the question of extending slavery in the Territories as to be willing to trust it to Popular Sovereignty even, would ensure the organization of a party at the North which would carry off more votes ten fold than could be gained by the nomination. In this connection I will copy an extract from a private letter just received from an intelligent Republican in Cleveland, Ohio:

"Whom do you think the Republicans will nominate at Chicago? If they nominate Seward he will be elected, but I think almost any other man would be defeated. There is no use in taking Bates or any man from a slave State for the sake of catching votes in slave States, as no such States can be carried now, and no such man if nominated would get the old-line anti-slavery votes in the free States. If any milk and water candidate is put in nomination at Chicago, it will ruin the Republican party as effectually as the nomination of Van Buren did the old Liberty Party in 1848. I think the delegation from this State (Ohio) will be divided between Chase and Seward. I go for Seward and Bissell of Illinois, or some good man in Pennsylvania instead of Bissell."

The above is from one of the oldest settlers and politicians of the Northwest, who is thoroughly acquainted with the sentiment of that section as far as Minnesota, and doubtless represents it very faithfully in his remarks.

The same tone is almost universal among Republicans now congregated here. They differ somewhat as to men, but agree as to the policy of the party in nominating a standard bearer who is a representative man of the principles inscribed upon the Republican banner. In this respect, our leader must be above suspicion and reproach.

The only way to win this battle is to boldly throw that banner to the breeze, nailed fast to the pole of Liberty, with our principles fully and clearly emblazoned upon it. There must be no cheating or skulking, or attempts at them. Frightened men are good for nothing in a close contest anyhow or anywhere; and if we have any such in the Republican party, they should not be allowed to get into places of importance. They must not lead the column where they will have the power to throw consternation into the ranks by flinching from the first skirmish at Chicago.

JUSTICE.

Burglary.—The store of Messrs. Chilcote & Zimmerman, at Madison, was entered on Wednesday evening last by burglars, but owing to the fact that the person or persons stumbled over a chair, and thus attracted the attention of Mr. Chilcote, nothing was stolen.

FROM MADISON.

The "Unwashed" Convention—Col. Chas D. Robinson's Lecture—Legislation.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.

MADISON, Feb. 23, 1860.

How sweet is thy savor, Democracy.—Watts.

Dear Sentinel:—The Democratic Convention has become a matter of history.—Land Agents, Post Masters and Deputy United States Marshals were here. Popular Sovereignty, popular poppycock, squatter sovereignty, no sovereignty, Know-Nothings, Buck-ites, Dug-ites, Feejees, Democrats and gentlemen were here. Sore heads were here. So was Steever. Steever, of Milwaukee, the author—the author Steever was here. His works still slumber in manuscript, but we are promised an early edition. Let his letters be recorded. General Ellis was here, and most remorselessly slaughtered he was, he was.

"They bore him, bare-faced, on his bier"

Out of the Convention, his old gray hairs stained with "a drop of Democratic blood." The Dug ites would not let him have a seat. Can't Buchanan appoint him to some mission? The General has hugged Buchanan principles as closely as old Buck's white handkerchief has clung to the wrinkled Presidential neck. He has apologized for all the old dotard's vagaries. For this truly Democratic devotion and sacrifice of principle at the behest of the Democratic leader at Washington, he has incurred the enmity of "Young America." His work is finished. They tripped the old man's heels, and sent him diving hellwards. He will not be long alone. Buchanan will soon be there. The old lion-hearted General shakes his mane in the columns of the Patriot, this evening, and roars some, while licking his own blood from the axe that gashed his head yesterday.

Hobart and Larrabee were both aspirants for Charleston, and both were defeated. They mutually express joy. If "our Elijah" is satisfied with his journey from Washington, he is more easily satisfied than usual. It looks like an unprofitable speculation for a man to travel over a thousand miles to kill a man who was so nearly dead as Hobart. I fear that the ineffable light of "our Elijah's" countenance will not beam in the chair of the United States Senate, during the succeeding four years. I understand that he is to have the ten men who voted for him appointed lighthouse keepers, when that appropriation bill passes. 'Tis well. In place of Larrabee, Hobart, Steever and others, we have, in this district, the immaculate Wm. A. Barstow.—Whew! I hope the planters won't leave their niggers out doors, o' nights, during the session of the Convention.

COL. CHARLES D. ROBINSON'S LECTURE.

The fifth lecture of the "Home Course" was delivered by Col. Robinson, in the "Weak Baptist Church," on Thursday evening. Everybody knows Col. Robinson, or ought to, for he is the best man in the Democratic party. He is a gentleman, and what is better, he supports the luxury of a great throbbing heart. It has chambers in it, where he keeps things. He comes out of a good country. Green Bay is a generous and nursing mother. The men who come down from that land have blood in their veins.—There is an honest strength in the grasp of their hands.

The lecturer was warmly greeted on walking into the desk. The large Church was filled. The lecturer was laboring under the effect of a severe cold, and was obliged to deliver the lecture in a conversational tone, but he was continually interrupted by bursts of applause. His ideas did not need the machinery of gesticulation and lungs, to make them palatable. He poured vitriol on the heads of corruptionists, and gave some of the fruits of his observations which it would be well for folks to heed. These lectures, thus far, have been very successful. I wish every city in the State would adopt this plan, of a Home Lecture Society. It would produce the most gratifying results. Every town has thinkers who would willingly contribute to the pleasure and profit of audiences. It should be a great free Church; the preachers are plenty, and the congregations hungry for thought. I notice that Rublee is out on "the circuit." He has good things for 'em. You can endorse his notes without looking at their face. They are never protested.

LEGISLATION.

Senator Washburne introduced a resolution in the Senate, on Thursday, "that on and after Tuesday, the Senate will hold two sessions each day, the afternoon session to commence at four o'clock," which was agreed to. Business will probably be pushed ahead with rapidity. Some time ago the compositor made me say some very complimentary things of Mr. Roody, but it should have been Mr. Bovay. Roody has "adjourned."

The late rain swept away the snow and softened things. The late frost has hardened things, and now the roads are as rough as the one that leads to Jordan, where the whang-doodle mourneth—"hence the immortality of the Soul."

Yours,
INWARIABLE.

The Hungarian.—This steamer, which was wrecked near Cape Sable last week, was one of the line of screw propellers, belonging to the Montreal Mail Steamship Company, which ply between Liverpool, Quebec and Portland, in connection with the grand Trunk Railway of Canada. She left Liverpool on the 8th inst., it being her third trip. The Hungarian is the fourteenth steamer that has been lost since the commencement of steam navigation between Europe and America:

The young ladies of Stanton publish a Literary Gazette. In the last number they communicate the following sensible things for the benefit of the Literary Association of that place:

Resolved, That though one hundred cents makes the dollar, common sense makes the man.

Resolved, That we are all men and women.

Resolved, That all men were young before they were old.

Resolved, That we will not submit to the old ones.

Resolved, That women are worth having, and we will have them.

Resolved, That when we want to anything we ought to have it.

Resolved, That if the child is father to the man, young men ought to know best.

Resolved, That they do know best.

Resolved, That any male member of this association, upon declining Leap Year favors, shall be expelled.

Resolved, That all men having common sense vote the Republican ticket.

Absence of Mind.—Rev. Mr. B——, pastor of the Congregational Church in Gilead, on Sunday last, tackled his horse to the sleigh, took on some butter and eggs, and a lot of tin ware, and started for Gorham, N. H., about ten miles distant, to dispose of the former and have the latter mended. Arriving there, he was much astonished to learn, as he offered his produce for sale, that it was Sunday. It was with some difficulty that he was convinced of the fact. But upon coming to the conclusion that it was Sunday, he said he would return and preach to his congregation in the afternoon.—Portland Argus.

A party of hunters, a few days ago were out hunting in Kinchafoonie Swamp, near Lampkin, Ala., when their attention was directed to a furious encounter between a small rabbit and a snake. The former fought ferociously, springing suddenly on the snake, tearing the flesh of the reptile with his feet and sharp teeth, and springing off again to avoid its poisonous fangs. The snake seemed trying to get away, but the rabbit, wholly unmindful of the presence of the the hunters, kept up the combat until his antagonist was disabled, when the little fellow beat a slow retreat, unharmed by the guns of his admiring spectators.

More Interesting Correspondence—Mr. Howison to Mr. Bayard Taylor.

RICHMOND, VA., Feb. 10, 1860.

Bayard Taylor, Esq.—Sir:—Your letter of the 3d inst. has been received.

I am truly sorry that you should consider anything in my last letter personally discourteous or insulting to you.

Certainly such was not the intention, nor do I believe that the letter, in whole or in part, can with fairness be so construed.

It was due as well to yourself as to those I represent, that, in withdrawing the invitation previously given to you, I should inform you plainly of our reasons for so doing. And your letter in no degree removes or diminishes the force of those reasons.

It was not generally known in this community that you were connected with the N. Y. Tribune, and the fact of such connection assumed a significance in the light of recent events, which caused open expressions of dissatisfaction.

And when, in addition to this, you inform me that you "hold the opinions of Washington and Jefferson on the subject of Slavery," your partial editorship of the Tribune indicates a positive sympathy with its doctrines. Washington and Jefferson were great, but human; they lived and died before the subject of Slavery had been thoroughly discussed in view of Scripture and reason, and above all, they died before modern Abolitionism had commenced its pestilential career.

Washington's opinions in favor of emancipation were moderate, and in his time, not objectionable; but Jefferson went much further.

If it be true that you, a scholar and a writer, do now, in 1860, hold with Jefferson, that "the whole commerce between master and slave is a perpetual exercise of the most boisterous passions, the most unremitting despotism on the one part, and degrading submission on the other," and in view of slavery, that you "tremble for your country, when you reflect that God is just; that His justice cannot sleep forever; that considering numbers, nature and natural means only, a revolution of the wheel of fortune, an exchange of situation is among possible events, that it may become probable by supernatural interference," and that "the Almighty has no attribute which can take side with us in such a contest"—if such be your present sentiments, then you cannot be surprised to find that you will not be a welcome visitor to a Virginia community.

As to your lecture on Humboldt, I have never heard it, and as it has not been published in full, I have of course not read it.—But certain extracts from it, and statements of parts of it have appeared in the papers, the Tribune among others, the accuracy of which you have not within my knowledge denied. One of these represents you as saying that Humboldt rarely attended Divine service, and that he possessed an unbounded scorn for much that is called religion; that his religious nature was perhaps too deep to find expression by such methods; that in a conversation with yourself he uttered a satire upon clergymen, and to this, certain remarks of your own are added, from all of which others beside myself had inferred that you vindicated and approved Humboldt's religious belief, although it was Deism, and not a simple faith in the Scriptures as divinely inspired. Whether such be your real sentiments, your own conscience only can decide: I pretend not to judge you, but I am bound to draw my own inferences from the indications apparent, and I regret that nothing in your letter removes these unfavorable impressions.

You conclude with the strong words, "Yours for free thought and enlightened Christianity." In a proper sense I unite with you in desiring these blessings; but the very forms of your expression remind me that with many at the North "free thought" has degenerated into "free thinking" or infidelity, and culminated in "free love," and that they have sought to "enlighten" Christianity by holding up in the face of the Sun of Righteousness the smoking taper of their so-called "higher law." For such "free tho't and enlightened Christianity" I am not, but I am

Yours for Constitutional Liberty and the Christianity of the Bible.

R. R. HOWISON.

MR. TAYLOR'S REPLY.

UTICA, N. Y., Feb. 20, 1860.

Sir:—I acquit you of intentional discourtesy, though my own standard of good breeding would lead me to omit such insinuations of infidelity, spiritualism, and free-love as you have seen fit to apply to me. From the tenor of your letter, I am not so much surprised that you should see nothing insulting in the attempt to subject a free man to censorship, not only of speech, but of thought.

It astonishes me, nevertheless, to hear from you that Washington's opinions on slavery were contrary to "Scripture and Reason"—that Jefferson, if now living, "would not be a welcome visitor to a Virginia community"—when I find, in a History of Virginia, written by yourself, this declaration: "The last and most important cause, unfavorably affecting Virginia, which we shall mention, is the existence of slavery within her bounds"—and also this: "We apprehend that, in general, the people of Virginia hold slavery to be an enormous evil, bearing with fatal power upon their prosperity." Allow me to ask whether your history was written by the light of "Scripture and Reason?"

The notices of my lecture on Humboldt, to which you refer, do not correctly represent my expressions. I said "he possessed an unbounded scorn for the meanness and inconsistency of many loud-mouthed professors of Christianity," and also repeated a remark of his, satirizing unworthy clergymen. I neither stated, nor do I believe, that he was merely a Deist. It is useless to recapitulate my remarks, because they referred to him alone. I trust I have too much good taste and good sense, to intrude my own religious views into lectures which are listened to by members of all Christian sects.

Let me once more urge upon your attention the fact, that I am neither a politician nor a theologian, but an author. What my political opinions are, concerns no one, so long as I do not proclaim them publicly.—For my religious faith I am answerable to God alone. I will enter into no discussion with you upon these points, for I deny your right, or the right of any other man, to catechise me. When I deliver my lectures on "The Arabs," "Arctic Life," and "Moscow," (as I proposed doing at Richmond,) your business with me extends no further than to demand that my statements be correct and my narrative entertaining.

Your repeated allusion to "free-love" might have been spared. I shall rejoice as heartily as yourselves, when the small band of licentious free-lovers disappears from the North, and when a race of mulattoes is no longer propagated at the South.

I cannot join in your closing declaration, when I find that "constitutional liberty" means a tyrrany over thought unknown in despotic Austria, and that "the Christianity of the Bible" includes an inquisitorial bigotry from which even Catholic Spain is free.

Yours, BAYARD TAYLOR.

R. R. Howison, Esq.

The Pacific Mail Company.—The Tribune money article says the agreement between Com. Vanderbilt and the Mail Company had not been actually signed at a late hour this afternoon, but there were only a few unimportant details to arrange, and little doubt was felt that the signatures of both parties would be attached to-night. The only question, we believe, unsettled, was that of the division of the treasure freight between the Atlantic and the Pacific Companies. Mr. Vanderbilt demands 36 per cent., and the Pacific Mail Company offer 30 per cent. This, however, only involves the question of some $25,000 per annum, and is not likely to break up the negotiations. The scheme of arrangement, as far as made public, is substantially as we have before stated.

The Pacific Mail Company buy the Vanderbilt boats in the Pacific with the exception of the Champion, for $750,000, of which $500,000 is paid in Pacific Mail Stock at par, and $250,000 in cash. The Champion is to be taken by the Pacific Mail Company in exchange for the St. Louis, and $150,000, or else Mr. Vanderbilt is to be paid $50,000 to bring her back to the Atlantic. The Vanderbilt's and Roberts' steamers are to do the whole Atlantic service, and the Mail Company the service on the Pacific. The revenue of the line to be divided; 30 per cent. to the Atlantic, and 70 per cent. to the Pacific service, with the exception before alluded to of the freight upon treasure. It is not proposed to put passenger fares to the old rates, but they will be materially advanced. It is believed with this combination of interests the business can be done without danger of any opposition line being established.

The Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Times writes:

"It is rumored that President Buchanan has at last become soured against the Herald, since its editorial pronouncing Mr. Buchanan no candidate for the Charleston nomination, and narrowing the race down between Pierce and Douglas, the last two he would be willing to see his successor. On reading the editorial alluded to, he is reported to have said to a friend, "Well, Bennet has turned fool at last."

North Carolina Ahead.—It should be a source of pride to North Carolinians to know that their State is more extensively engaged in cotton manufactories than any other in the South. From the statistics it appears that in 1859, about 29,000 bales of cotton were manufactured into cloth in North Carolina, while in Georgia, "the Empire State of the South," the number of bales was 26,000.—Raleigh Register.

LETTER FROM CHINA.

Failure of the Rice Crop—Coolie Traffic—Burning of the Emperor of Japan's Palace.

U. S. FLAG SHIP POWHATAN,
HARBOR OF HONG KONG, Dec. 12, 1859.

Throughout all the East, from India to the shores of the Pacific, according to the most reliable information, the past season has been marked beyond any one for a long series of years by the failure of the rice crop, which, as a means of subsistence, is hardly exceeded in value by all the grains produced in the United States.

For various reasons in different countries,—the war, perhaps, accounting for the failure to some extent in India, and floods in the Maylan Peninsula, and drouth in some parts of China—there will be a deficiency in the usual supply of one-third.

The coolie trade has lost none of its activity or horrors. The slave trade itself on the coast of Africa is not more atrocious; while all the horrors of the "middle passage" belongs to a coolie-ship as well as an African slaver, and at the same time that "middle passage" embraces the China Sea, the Indian Ocean, and the Atlantic, instead of the Atlantic only.

The great centres of the traffic are Amoy, a port about two hundred miles north of Hong Kong, and Macao, the old Portuguese town, twenty-five miles distant, on the Canton river, where barracoons are erected, and dealers have their residence, who make their arrangements with pirates and others to secure coolies by promises, however false, if they can, or by violence, if that is necessary. Fair promises are made in abundance, tempting to these poor starving people, but promises made only to be broken, by which great numbers are decoyed and then forced into these barracoons, and thus detained, unable to communicate with their friends, or the authorities, while others are seized while asleep in their junks by night, or quietly occupied in their fields or gardens, or humble avocations, and with hands and feet tied, are hurried off to the barracoons, where they are imprisoned till the ship is ready, to which they are carried by night or stealthily by day, notwithstanding all their entreaties and protestations, and despite all their feeble resistance.

On the evening of the 10th we lay in the port of Cokohama, preparing to sail in the morning, and about 15 miles distant from Jeddo, a fire broke out in that direction, which seemed to cover a larger space and be nearer than Jeddo, and, as we concluded, was consuming some town or village—which are numberless around Jeddo. The scene was magnificent, however melancholy, and resembled, as I imagined, the flames sent up from the top of the great mountain, Fusi Ami, clearly in sight, and 16,000 feet high, in the days of its activity as a volcano.—Leaving in the morning, we had no time to receive any information, but have since learned that it was the Imperial Palace itself, in Jeddo, which was destroyed. Such an event is said to occur about once in a century, and spreads consternation throughout the Empire. All business and trade, as we are informed, are suspended, by imperial edict, throughout the Empire; how long this prohibition will continue is not ascertained, nor what effect the disaster will have in relation to the mission of the two Commissioners of the United States. Possibly, through some superstitious augury, the whole arrangement may be defeated.

It is not as yet decided, as I understand, whether we shall run to San Francisco or to the Sandwich Islands, or, using sail only for a good part of the distance, strike directly for Panama. The long voyage will present a good opportunity to study Japanese character in all its phases, of which I hope to avail myself, and propose to re-open my Nagasaki school on board the Powhatan, thus aiding some of the suite, at least aid indirectly the two commissioners themselves, to understand America and Americans when they reach our shores.—Cor. Jour. of Com.

The Moors.—In the earliest times the people on the European and African sides of the Straits of Gibraltar were the same, and the intercourse between them over the narrow channel was frequent. In the subsequent movements of warlike tribes and peoples, Spain and Barbary were successively in whole or in part, overrun by the Carthaganians, Romans, Goths, Vandals and Saracens or Arabs, leaving both Spain and Barbary, in the early part of the eighth century, under the dominion of the latter. Both became provinces of the Caliphs of Bagdad, and were ruled by their governors. The Moors, as the Arabs of Spain and Morocco were called, mingled their blood with the inhabitants of the country, and for eight hundred years—much of the time as the predominant power in the Spanish Peninsula, notwithstanding the invasion and civil wars, instigated by religious bigotry, to which they were subjected—maintained themselves in Spain, and under their sway the country became powerful and great. At the end of this period they were subdued by the Christian states which had arisen among them, and the establishment of the Inquisition placed their lives and everything they possessed at the mercy of their conquerors.

A century of burnings, confiscations and horrors succeeded; when what remained of them, in the beginning of the seventeenth century, whom neither fire nor faggot could convert, were expelled from Spain and driven into Africa. This, and the expulsion of the Jews which followed, destroyed the greatness of Spain—her commerce, her revenues, and her morals—leaving her a crippled monster lying helpless at the mouth of the grave she had dug; from which condition, after a lapse of two centuries and a half, she is only now beginning to recover. The Spanish, like all the central and southern nations of Europe, are of mixed blood made up of the several peoples who have overrun their land; but in many of the provinces, especially at the south and east, the Arab or Moorish blood still predominates. The war with Morocco, if it had not its origin in ancient memories, can hardly fail to recall them, and inspire the Moors with a frenzy of defence and vengeance which will go far to make up for their deficiency in the science of arms.

Sands' Pale Cream Ale.
HAVING RECENTLY PURCHASED the Spring Brewery, on Eighth and Chestnut streets, with the view of making the above mentioned beverage in Milwaukee, I would respectfully solicit the patronage of the people and those Saloons and Restaurants that desire to keep a prime Ale on draught for their patrons.
To those who are familiar with Sands' Chicago Pale Cream Ale, I need say nothing as to its quality; to those who are not, I would simply ask a trial, and I pledge myself to my patrons to do all in my power to make Sands' Pale Cream Ale as popular a beverage in Milwaukee and vicinity as it is in Chicago and surrounding country, and I trust by the assistance of lovers of good Ale, to give Sands' Milwaukee Pale Cream and Amber Ale a reputation second to none in the West.
Saloons and Families in city or country supplied by the barrel, half-barrel or cask, or in bottles. Also Porter bottled or in casks of any size. Orders by mail or otherwise promptly attended to. Price List sent by mail on application.

THESE MACHINES SEW FROM TWO Spools, as purchased from the store, requiring no rewinding of thread; they Hem, Fell, Gather, and Stitch in a superior style, finishing each seam by their own operation, without recourse to the hand-needle, as is required by other machines. They will do better and cheaper sewing than a seamstress can, even if she works for one cent an hour.
A new Shuttle Machine for manufacturing purposes or $60, fully equal to any sold at $100.

ISINGLASS.—COOPER'S REFINED, IN sheet and shred for sale by EDWARD TRUSLOW, 119 East Water St.

Special Notices.

MOTHERS! MOTHERS!

DON'T FAIL TO PROCURE MRS. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for children teething. It has no equal on earth. It greatly facilitates the process of teething, by softening the gums, reducing inflamation—will allay all pain, and is sure to regulate the bowels. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and relief and health to your infants. Perfectly safe in all cases.

This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the most experienced and skillful Female Physicians in New England, and has been used with never failing success in millions of cases.

We believe it is the best and surest remedy in the world, in all cases of Dysentery and Diarrhoea in children, whether it arises from teething or any other cause.

If life and health can be estimated by dollars and cents, it is worth its weight in gold.

Millions of bottles are sold every year in the United States. It is an old and well tried remedy.

PRICE ONLY 25 CENTS A BOTTLE.

☞ None genuine unless the fac simile of CURTIS & PARKER, New York, is on the outside wrapper.

Sold by Druggists throughout the world. Office No. 13 Cedar street, New York.

Sold in Milwaukee by John Rice. je15i419dw&tw1y

THE PUBLIC BLESSING WHICH IS now so universally admitted to exist in Moffat's Life Pills and Phoenix Bitters, is every day demonstrated by their astonishing efficacy in the cases which they are announced to cure. All the complaints of the stomach and bowels, weakness of the digestive organs and of the system generally, bilious and liver affections, night fevers, head aches, piles costiveness, consumption, rheumatism, scurvy, impurity of the blood, or blotched and sallow complexions, soon yield to their curative properties. A single trial invariably secures them the title of the best family medicine now before the public. For sale by the proprietor, W. B. MOFFAT, at his office, 335 Broadway, and by Store Keepers and Druggists generally. oct15i-52dtw&wly

KENOSHA WATER CURE

THE SENTINEL.

[Written expressly for the Daily Sentinel.]

TWENTY STEPS TO ONE WOMAN'S HEART.

"Very well. Until then, let us dismiss the subject, for, to tell the truth, I fancy it is eating too deep into your mind."

Jerry laughed and produced a daguerreotype from his pocket, which he held in front of him in an admiring manner.

"Now, to tell the truth, Greenway," he said, "that is a confounded pretty face, and it's too bad to be obliged to give up the search here."

"I am not sure that it would help matters any to find her," Greenway answered, "You may now rest quite content in the belief that she is a divinity. A successful search may prove that she is a fallen angel."

"Look at that!" Jerry rejoined, holding the miniature so that his companion could see the face. "Does that look like a fallen what-d'ye-call-it? Isn't purity, and all the other cardinal arrangements duly represented there; eh, artist, physiognomist, philosopher?"

"Oh, it's all very pretty," Greenway replied, "and I wouldn't mind taking a copy of it some time, if you would spare it long enough; it would make a capital head of Medusa or Haidee. Now tell me, how was it that your friend Chartsey became possessor of it?"

"Thereby hangs a guardian tale which Chartsey's sword even cannot sever. He has a faint recollection of a gentleman and a daughter coming and going; a faint memory of duplicating the thing privately because the face pleased him, and that is all. Nothing could stimulate his treacherous brain into a description of the man's appearance, or his language, or the opinion that he formed of the couple at the time."

"How would it do, Jerry, to set our friend Hanchut on the trail; he is considered one of the smartest detective officers in the department, and has a spice of romance in his composition too?"

"I've been thinking of the same thing myself. It wouldn't be a bad idea. Egad, I'll call on him to-morrow."

While these two young gentlemen are conversing here, let us follow Clinton and Stansbury. On leaving the studio of Greenway, Ed. proceeded at once to a small office on Third Avenue, bearing the inscription, "Christmas, Notary Public." When within a stone throw of the place they stopped to consult.

"It's now nearly six o'clock," said Ed., looking down at the quaint church spire, with its ancient clock, in Stuyvesant Place; "I will go in and acquaint Chris. with the Savages' acceptance of his invitation, and tell Jerry will be at his house with the party by eight. Do you go into that oyster saloon over there and wait for me. I will get him to have his landlady fix up a supper, and make all the necessary preparation and be with you in a twinkling." He then left Stansbury and proceeded alone to the Notary's office; the latter crossing the street and descending the steps of the oyster saloon.—As he did so, two men, who had been standing unobserved somewhat near them, while talking, and who bore no noticeable characteristic in their exteriors, walked to the opposite side of the avenue and one of the men said:

"Now you're sure of him: he is one of the party I'll take my oath. Go down and trap him and I'll meet you at the Pointer."

They then separated, the one who had spoken going hastily down the street, the other entering the saloon.

Here we were suddenly startled by a terrific clap of thunder! and as Chartsey turned his head to look out upon the trees the pattering of the heavy rain drops was heard.

"It's a shower, quick! for the house!" I said, as the black masses of clouds showed themselves through the oak leaves, and we all set out at a wild scamper for the protective domicil. I think I placed my arm half about Blanche once or twice as though I would assist her, and we reached the veranda breathing deep and looking somewhat flurried.—Chartsey brought out chairs and in a few moments we were listening to STEP FOUR.

Stansbury was not a remarkably quick-witted young man. He was one of your sympathetic natures that answer to every touch. He loved oysters, too, as all sympathetic young men do, and he called for "a plate raw." It was then that the individual who had followed him came up and extending his hand, said:

"How are you, my boy?"

"Lively!" said Stanbury, returning the grasp and looking enquiringly at the figure before him.

"We're fortunate in meeting here. I was just going to order some champagne, and now I have some one to drink it with me, I'll call for an extra bottle," said the stranger, seating himself at the table.

"Bless me! if I recollect you," rejoined Stansbury, still eyeing the face and figure curiously.

"Don't you? Well, you must have an acute memory."

"Ain't you a friend of Clinton?"

"Yes."

"Well, if I am not mistaken he introduced you to me not many weeks ago. Tax your memory; it deserves it dearly! Ah! here is the oysters. Allow me to pay the bill; then all right."

"Bring that champagne, waiter!"

"You see I know you, Stansbury; but the fact is, I haven't met you since that introduction, and if I hadn't taken a liking to you that night, would have forgotten you entirely."

Here's where Stansbury's sympathetic nature did him an injury. He immediately supposed his comrade was one of the many young men he met when attending Jerry's parties. He, moreover, not being a millionaire, was somewhat predisposed in the stranger's favor by the mere fact that he had paid the supper bill. He wasn't curious, in short, and so when the conversation was adroitly turned into another channel he went with it, and forgot to ask the person's name. Three glasses of champagne made him talkative too, and the man having learned from him that he had a friend named Jerry, said:

"Oh, yes, I know him well; but now tell me ar'nt you going on some kind of a spree to-night?"

"To be sure we are, and its one of the jolliest affairs you ever heard of. Clinton's own, sir, all Clint's, and a rare thing it will be before morning." Here followed an account of the deception to be practiced upon Christmas, at the conclusion of which the stranger said:

"Well, now I'll tell you Stansbury, you might ring me in on that party. There's nothing I like better than just such a row. Can't you float me in someway?"

"Why I suppose so, if you particularly desire it."

"Well, I do. Hang me if I don't befriend you for life, if you'll say the word. Where do you meet?"

This and similar questions soon enabled the man to acquire a full and complete knowledge of the party's intended operations, and when they had finished, and Clinton came in, Stansbury introduced his new friend with—"Let me see, what did you say your name was?"

"Stone—Alph Stone, confound it you know as well as I do," was the answer.

Secretary's Office

The Secretary of State of the State of Wisconsin hereby certifies that the foregoing Statement has been compared with the original instrument on file in this office and that the same is a true and correct copy thereof and of the whole of such original.

The Springfield Fire & Marine Insurance Company of Springfield, Mass., having complied with the requirements of Sections one and five of an Act entitled "An Act to regulate Insurance Companies not incorporated by the State of Wisconsin," approved March 17, 1859, and having paid into the State Treasury the sum of ninety-seven 25-100 dollars, being three per cent. upon the gross amount of premiums received in the State of Wisconsin, in the year 1859; (as per their report.)

Now therefore, in pursuance of the Act aforesaid the Secretary of State of the State of Wisconsin hereby certifies that the said Springfield Fire & Marine Insurance Company, when they shall have complied with the requirements of section three of said Act, may take risks, receive premiums, and transact the business of an Insurance Company in this State from this date until the 31st day of January, A. D. 1861.

[L. S.] In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State, at the Capitol in Madison, this fourteenth day of February, A. D. 1860.

Secretary's Office. }

The Secretary of State of the State of Wisconsin hereby certifies that the foregoing statement has been compared with the original instrument on file in this office, and that the same is a true and correct copy thereof, and of the whole of such original.

The North-Western Insurance Company, of Oswego, New York, having complied with the requirements of sections one and five of an Act entitled "An Act to regulate Insurance Companies not incorporated by the State of Wisconsin," approved March 17, 1859; and having paid into the State Treasury the sum of four hundred eleven and 24-100 dollars, being three per cent upon the gross amount of premiums received in the State of Wisconsin, in the year 1859, (as per their report).

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the Act aforesaid, the Secretary of State of the State of Wisconsin, hereby certifies that the said North-Western Insurance Company, when it shall have complied with the requirements of section three of said Act, may take risks, receive premiums, and transact the business of an Insurance Company in this State, from this date until the thirty-first day of January, A. D. 1861.

[L. S.] In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and affixed the Great Seal of the State, at the Capitol in Madison, this eleventh day of February, A. D. 1860.

BININGER'S OLD LONDON DOCK GIN

A. M. BININGER & CO.,
(ESTABLISHED 1778.)
SOLE IMPORTERS,
No. 338 Broad Street, New York.

THIS DELICIOUS TONIC, ESPECIALLY for the use of the Medical Profession and the Family,

Possesses those INTRINSIC medicinal properties, [Tonic and Diuretic] which belong to an OLD AND PURE GIN.

The business of manufacturing spurious Gins, and offering them as beverages, under the titles, "Aromatic," "Cordial," "Medicated," &c., has become so common that the public are justly suspicious of nearly everything that is offered under similar forms, and the trade has thus been brought into discrepute. It has remained for our house (established in 1778) to supply the pressing popular need, and to inaugurate a new era in the history of the Trade. We trust that our established reputation—founded upon eighty years of experience—abundantly vindicates our claim to public confidence.

N. B.

A comparison of "Bininger's Old London Dock Gin" with others bearing similar names, will establish its superiority, and make other Caution unnecessary.

THE REASON WHY, IS THAT BY Nature's own process it restores the natural color permanently after the hair becomes gray; supplies the natural fluids, and thus makes it grow on bald heads, removes all dandruff, itching and heat from the scalp, quiets and tones up the nerves, and thus cures all nervous headache, and may be relied upon to cure all diseases of the scalp and hair; it will stop and keep it from falling off; makes it soft, glossy, healthy, and beautiful and if used by the young two or three times a week, it will never fall or become gray; then readers, read the following and judge for yourselves:

NEW YORK, Jan. 8, 1858.

MESSRS. O. J. WOOD & CO.:
GENTLEMEN: Having heard a good deal about Professor Wood's Hair Restorative, and my hair being quite gray, I made up my mind to lay aside the prejudice which, in common with a great many persons, I had against all manner of patent medicines, and a short time ago I commenced using your article, to test it for myself.

The result has been so very satisfactory that I am very glad that I did so, and in justice to you, as well as for the encouragement of others who may be as gray as I was, but who having my prejudice without my reasons for setting it aside, are unwilling to give your Restorative a trial till they have further proof, and the best proof being occular demonstration, I write you this letter, which you may show to any such, and also direct them to me for further proof, who am in and out of the N. Y. Wire Railing Establishment every day.

My hair is now its natural color and much improved in appearance every way, being glossier and thicker and much more healthy looking.

I am, Yours Respectfully,
HENRY JENKINS,
Cor. Columbus and Carroll sts., Brooklyn.

LIVINGSTON, Ala., Feb. 14, 1858.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative has done much good in this part of the country.—My hair has been slightly diminishing for several years, caused, I suppose, from a slight burn when I was quite an infant. I have been using your Hair Restorative for six weeks and I find that I have a fine head of hair now growing, after having used all other remedies known, to no effect. I think it the most valuable remedy now extant, and advise all who are afflicted that way to use your remedy.

You can publish this if you think proper.
Yours, &c., S. W. MIDDLETON.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 9, 1857.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir: Your Hair Restorative is proving itself beneficial to me. The front, and also the back part of my head almost lost its covering, was in fact BALD. I have used but two half pint bottles of your Restorative, and now the top of my head is well studded with a promising crop of young hair, and the front is also receiving its benefit. I have tried other preparations without any benefit whatever. I think from my own personal recommendation, I can induce many others to try it.
Yours, respectfully, D. R. THOMAS, M. D.
No. 464 Vine street

The Restorative is put up in bottles of three sizes, viz: Large, medium, and small; the small holds ½ a pint, and retails for one dollar per bottle; the medium holds at least twenty per cent. more in proportion than the small, retails for two dollars per bottle; the large holds a quart, 40 per cent. more in proportion, and retails for $3 a bottle.

THE SENTINEL.

COMMERCIAL.

SATURDAY EVENING, February 25th, 1860.

Money Matters.

There has been no change whatever in the money market during the past week. There is very little money stirring, and apparently very little to stir. Good business paper goes freely enough at the banks, but the amount of that description offering at present is comparatively trifling. We cannot say that there is any perceptible improvement in general business. We are, however, approaching the end of one of the dullest winters that has ever been experienced in the West, and there is every prospect that the opening of spring will inaugurate a better state of things. Our wholesale merchants have strong confidence that the spring trade will be much better than last year, and are making preparations to replenish their stocks on a large scale. Exchange still holds out at 2 per cent. premium; but is more plenty, and parties needing it occasionally find opportunities to supply themselves on the street at ½@¾ below the bank rates.

MONEY MATTERS AND BUSINESS ELSEWHERE are in no better condition than here. We take the following from the Chicago Press & Tribune of this morning:

The demand for exchange is rather more active and of course outside rates are firmer. The banks supply customers freely, yet at current rates, viz, 2 per cent. for currency. Gold 2@2¼ with no demand.

Business is excessively dull. Very little acceptable paper finds its way to the banks, and prospects for a supply are by no means flattering. A large amount of capital lies perfectly useless in the banks. Patience must be exercised till the spring breezes give activity to the currents of trade.

The St. Louis Democrat of yesterday says:

The scarcity of bankable funds was such to-day, that assorted funds were paid out over the counter. Currency (Illinois and Wisconsin) is also very scarce at ½ cent discount below interior Missouri, although Eastern Exchange could not be had for it under 2 per cent premium. The Exchange market is firm, with no surplus at all, at 1¾ prem, on the East and South for bankable funds. Buying rates are 1½@1¾ prem.

There is but little doing at the Banks; offerings are light, and money quiet.

Oscar & Co. sold the following bank stock at auction:

15 shares Exchange Bank............$100 00 ₩ share
25 shares Southern Bank............ 95 50 "

Prospects for an active spring trade are thought to be favorable, and merchants from the country are numerous in the street to-day, though collections from the country are yet quite small.

CHICAGO, FEB. 24TH.—Receipts, 966 bbls flour; 6,730 bushels wheat; 10,475 bush corn; 4,155 bush oats; 436 bus rye; 1,915 bush barley.

The flour market was considerably firmer to-day, with a good inquiry for New Orleans, but there was no material advance. About 1,600 bbls changed hands at $4 90@5.00 for choice brands of spring extra, and $4.75 @4.85 for fair to good. There was a stronger speculative feeling to-day, and 400 bbls of a city brand were sold at $4.75. Wheat was also in better demand, and the market advanced 1c, with sales of No. 1 spring at $1.01 in store; No. 2 at 98@99c; and rejected at 90c.—The Corn market under the influence of depressing news from St. Louis, was dull and declined 1½c, closing quiet at 43@43½ for No. 1 in store. About 12,000 bus only, changed hands, at 43@44½c for No. 1 in store; 41@41½ for No. 2 in store; and 41½c for rejected on track. Oats were very dull and 1c lower, with but limited transactions at 34½@35c for No. 1 on track. Rye steady. Barley in good demand for shipment to Pittsburgh, with a firmer market—sales of No 1 being made at 62c in store, and 65@66c on track.—Clover Seed was in better request, and the market shows a slight improvement, liberal transactions having taken place at $4.45@4.50. Good Timothy Seed was in fair demand at $2.75@2.80, but inferior, of which there is a large quantity offering, is dull and heavy. Hungarian Grass is quiet at 95@100c for common to fair.—Highwines steady at 19½@20c. Alcohol, 41c.

The Provision market is inactive, but holders are still firm, and there is very little product offering. We report sales of Pickled Hams at 8¾@9½c, and Pickled Shoulders at $12.00 ₩ bbl. Lard is scarce and in demand at 10½c. Tallow firm at 10@10½c. Hides steady. Butter very dull

Weekly Review of Milwaukee Markets.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY SENTINEL, }
SATURDAY February 25th—4 P. M. }

The market for produce has maintained quite a buoyant tone during the past week, and some descriptions have advanced slightly. Wheat and flour especially were firm, the former closing at an improvement of 1@2c and the latter 5@10c upon the prices ruling last Saturday.

Coarse grains of all kinds, with the exception of Barley, have been dull, and some descriptions are scarcely quotable. There have been no transactions of any account in Oats, and holders are not apparently anxious to sell. Shelled Corn has sold to some extent at 48@49c, closing at the latter figure. With light receipts and the stimulus of a brisk demand, Barley has gone up 4@5c, quoted firm to-day at 63@65c for No. 1 and 68@70c for Extra. Rye is entirely nominal at 70@75c. Timothy seed has advanced about 10c; the range to-day being $2,50@2,75 for fair to prime.

Dressed hogs, though not quite so firm yesterday and to-day as at the close of last week, still rule high.—Light, inferior hogs, have in some instances sold at reduced prices, but the market has been maintained at the highest point for nice clear fat hogs, averages of 200 to 250 pounds and upwards bringing $6,50@7,00 per cwt.

Provisions remain firm at the quotations given in our Prices Current. No sales, except in a retail way, have occurred during the week. The stock of pork held here is not far from 12,000 barrels, mostly in the hands of packers.

Since the date of our last review, the Europa arrived with advices from Liverpool to the 11th inst., the substance of which was firm markets for breadstuffs and a slight improvement in all qualities. This news, we need not say had a good effect on the markets here, as may be inferred from the advanced prices noted elsewhere. Annexed are the principal transactions of the week in the produce market, and what quotations are not given here will be found under the head of our "Wholesale Prices Current." The quotations of Dry Goods, Groceries, Fruit, Hardware, etc., will be found very complete, and may be relied upon as strictly correct.

SOYER'S SULTANA'S SAUCE,

For Hot and Cold Dishes of all Kinds.

THIS MOST DELICIOUS and appetising Sauce, invented by the renowned "SOYER," for the London Reform Club, is, since his decease, manufactured by the well known house of CROSSE & BLACKWELL, London, from the original recipe It is the favorite sauce in England and on the Continent, with a high and growing reputation among American Epicures, and is much approved of as a stimulant to the appetite and aid in digestion.

Opinions of the London Press.

"We recommend our correspondent to try MONS. SOYER'S new Sauce, entitled the 'Sultana's Sauce.' It is made after the Turkish recipe; its flavor is excellent, and it affords considerable aid in cases of SLOW AND WEAK DIGESTION."—The Lancet.

"Savery, Piquant and Spicy, worthy the genius of Soyer."—Observer.

"A most valuable adjunct to Fish, Flesh, and Fowl, and should have a place on every table."—Atlas.

Richardson's Irish Linens, Damaks,

DIAPERS, &C.—CONSUMERS OF RICHARDSON'S LINENS, and those desirous of obtaining the GENUINE GOODS, should see that the articles they purchase are sealed with the full name of the firm, J. N. RICHARDSON, SONS & OWDEN, as a guarantee of the soundness and durability of the Goods.

This caution is rendered essentially necessary, as large quantities of inferior and defective Linens are prepared, season after season and sealed with the name of RICHARDSON, by Irish Houses, who, regardless of the injury thus inflicted alike on the American consumer and the manufacturers of the genuine Goods, will not readily abandon a business so profitable while purchasers can be imposed on with Goods of a worthless character.

CHICAGO AND THE EAST.
FARE AS LOW AS ANY OTHER ROUTE.

☞ Passengers wishing to go by this desirable and pleasant Route, should be particular and ask for Tickets by Fort Wayne, avoiding the annoyance of re-checking baggage as by other routes.

Trains leave the depot on VAN BUREN ST., daily as follows:
7:15 A. M., Morning Mail and Express.
7:25 P. M., Night Express.

CHECKING BAGGAGE THROUGH

To Pittsburg, Philadelphia, Baltimore and New York. Connecting directly with trains on the great Pennsylvania Central Railroad, to all Eastern cities. Also, with the Cleveland & Columbus R. R. to Cleveland, Dunkirk, Buffalo, Niagara Falls, via New York Central and New York and Erie Railroads to New York and Boston.

Persons going East will find this route by far the most desirable, both from the advantage in point of distance, variety and beauty of the country through which the roads pass, as well as the less frequent changes of cars, and the annoyance of re-checking baggage required by other routes.

Facilities for the transportation of Freight and Live Stock by this route, are unsurpassed. Rates as low as any other route, and with equal dispatch.

Tickets for sale at all the principal ticket offices at the West, and at the Company's office, No. 50 Dearborn St., opposite the Tremont House, Chicago, and at the Union Ticket office, No. 230 East Water St., Milwaukee.

THE GREATEST
MEDICAL DISCOVERY
OF THE AGE.

MR. KENNEDY, OF ROXBURY, HAS discovered in one of our common pasture weeds a remedy that cures
EVERY KIND OF HUMOR, FROM
THE WORST SCROFULA DOWN TO A COMMON PIMPLE.

He has tried it in over eleven hundred cases, and never failed except in two cases, both thunder humor. He has now in his possession over one hundred certificates of its value, all within twenty miles of Boston.

Two bottles are warranted to cure a nursing sore mouth.

One to three bottles will cure the worst kind of pimples on the face.

Two or three bottles will cure the system of biles.

Two bottles are warranted to cure the worst canker in the stomach.

Three or five bottles are warranted to cure the worst kind of Erysipelas.

One to two bottles are warranted to cure all humor in the eyes.

Two bottles are warranted to cure running of the ears and blotches among the hair.

Four to six bottles are warranted to cure corrupt and running ulcers.

One bottle will cure scaly eruptions of the skin.

Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the worst kind of ringworm.

Two or three bottles are warranted to cure the most desperate case of rheumatism.

Three or four bottles are warranted to cure salt rheum.

Five to eight bottles will cure the worst case of scrofula.

A benefit is always experienced from the first bottle, and a perfect cure is warranted when the above quantity is taken.

ROXBURY, Mass.

DEAR MADAM:—The reputation of the Medical Discovery, in curing all kinds of humors, is so well established, by the unanimous voice of all who have ever used it, that I need not say anything on the subject, as the most skillful physicians and the most careful druggists in the country are unanimous in its praise.

In presenting the Medical Discovery to your notice, I do it with a full knowledge of its curative powers, in relieving all, and curing most of the diseases to which you are unfortunately so liable. That most excruciating disease to an affectionate mother.

NURSING SORE MOUTH

is cured as if by a miracle; your own temper is restored to its natural sweetness, and your babe from short and fretful naps to calm and sweet slumbers; and the Medical Discovery becomes a fountain of blessings to your husband and household.

In the more advanced stages of CANKER
it extends to the stomach, causing DYSPEPSIA
which is nothing but canker on the stomach; then on the intestines and creating a sinking, gone feeling, and an indifference even to the cares of your family.
Your stomach is
RAW AND INFLAMED,
your food distresses you, and you can only take certain kinds, and even of that your system does not get half the nourishment it contains, as the acrimonious fluid of the canker eats it up; then your complexion loses its bloom and becomes sallow or greenish, and your best day is gone. For want of nourishment your system becomes loose and flabby, and the fibres of your body become relaxed. Then follows a train of diseases which the Medical Discovery is peculiarly adapted to CURE;
Palpitation of the heart, pain in the side, weakness of the spine and small of the back, pain of the hip-joint when you retire, irregularity of the bowels, and also that most excruciating of diseases the PILES.

How many thousands of poor women are suffering from this disease and pining away a miserable life, and their next door neighbor does not know the cause. I wish to impress on your mind that good old proverb "an ounce of prevention is better than a pound of cure." In the
MEDICAL DISCOVERY
you have both the preventative and the cure, with this great and good quality, that it will never, under any circumstances, do you an injury. Yours truly,
DONALD KENNEDY.

DR. CHURCHILL'S REMEDY.

WINCHESTER'S GENUINE PREPARATION OF THE HYPOPHOSPHITES
OF LIME AND OF SODA,
(Made from the Formula of Dr. J. F. Churchill,)
FOR THE PREVENTION AND CURE OF CONSUMPTION!

THE SUCCESS OF THIS NEW REMEDY, (discovered by Dr. Churchill, of Paris,) is obtaining the most UNBOUNDED POPULARITY throughout Europe and the United States. It is a purely SCIENTIFIC PREPARATION, and acts with INVARIABLE EFFICACY in all stages of Pulmonary and Nervous Diseases.

This Remedy has not only a curative effect, but will, if used wherever there exists a suspicion of the disease, PREVENT ITS DEVELOPMENT, and thus act as a preservative with regard to Consumption, just as vaccination does with regard to small-pox.

What the Medical Profession Say.

"In no instance have I found the Remedy to fail."—Dr. Churchill.

"I have used your preparation of the Hypophosphites with the most happy effect."—C. Fisher, M. D. Lynville, Ill.

"I have been astonished in witnessing the good effects of the Hypophosphites. The statements in your pamphlet are not at all exaggerated. My patient was just entering the last stage of tubercular consumption."—S. Moses, M. D., Hoosic Falls, N. Y.

"They exert an important remedial influence over the tubercular disease by improving the nervous strength and invigorating the nutritive functions."—Dr. W. E. Rust, Morristown, N. J.

"I have derived more satisfaction from the use of your Hypophosphites than from all other forms of medication combined."—Dr. Geo. W. Marie, Columbus, O.

"If, on the earliest appearance of the symptoms, the patient takes daily about ten grains of the Hypophosphites, he will speedily find himself in the enjoyment of such health as he, perhaps, had never known in his life before."

"Winchester's Hypophosphites are unexceptional in their preparation."—Am. Druggists' Circular.

"Mr. Winchester is worthy of all confidence, and devotes himself enthusiastically to these preparations in all their variety of combination. * * Prepared strictly by Dr. Churchill's method."—D. Meredith Reese, M. D., New York.

"LOWELL, O., July 5, 1859.—I have had several cases given up by attending physicians who are now exempt from all the symptoms of pulmonary disease.—I have used the Remedy in my own case, with decided success. It was regarded as hopeless by physicians and friends, and even by myself, under the 'old treatment.' I am now able to ride, in attending the sick, as many miles, perhaps, in a day, as any other physician in the country."—W. F. Clark, M. D.

"The Hypophosphites are most appropriate Remedies in large class of affections resulting from loss of nervous force."—Boston Medical and Surgical Journal.

Dr. Churchill's Work on Consumption,
IS NOW READY.

The Hypophosphites may be used with incurable success in Chronic Bronchitis, Asthma, Dyspepsia, and in all "Nervous" Disorders.

Make no Delay!

Consumptives, in any stage of the disease, should resort immediately to the use of the Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda. "Winchester's Genuine Preparation" (in simple syrup), in extra large bottles, is "chemically pure"; is the combination proposed by Dr. Churchill "for general use"; and is prepared according to his original Formula.

For sale, Wholesale and Retail, by HENRY FESS, Jr., Milwaukee, who is authorized to supply THE TRADE at New York prices.

For sale at Retail by J. M. ALCOTT, and by all prominent Druggists.

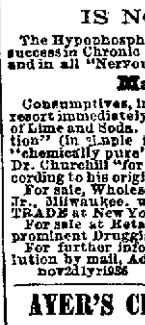
AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL.



THROUGH A TRIAL OF many years and through every nation of civilized men, AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has been found to afford more relief and to cure more cases of pulmonary disease than any other remedy known to mankind. Cases of apparently settled consumption have been cured by it, and thousands of sufferers who were deemed beyond the reach of human aid have been restored to their friends and usefulness, to sound health and the enjoyments of life, by this all-powerful antidote to diseases of the lungs and throat.—The dry, hacking cough, the glassy eye, and the pale, thin features of him who was lately lusty and strong, whisper to all but him CONSUMPTION. He tries every thing; but the disease is knawing at his vitals, and shows its fatal symptoms more and more over all his frame. He is taking the CHERRY PECTORAL now; it has stopped his cough and made his breathing easy; his sleep is sound at night; his appetite returns, and with it his strength. The dart which pierced his side is broken. Scarcely any neighborhood can be found which has not some living trophy like this to shadow forth the virtues which have won for the CHERRY PECTORAL an imperishable renown. But its usefulness does not end here. Nay, it accomplishes more by prevention than cure. The countless colds and coughs which it cures are the seed which would have ripened into a dreadful harvest of incurable diseases. Influenza, Croup, Bronchitis, Hoarseness, Pleurisy, Whooping Cough, and all irritations of the throat and lungs are easily cured by the CHERRY PECTORAL if taken in season. Every family should have it by them, and they will find it an invaluable protection from the insidious prowler which carries off the parent sheep from many a flock, the darling lamb from many a home.

Authenticated evidence of these facts, with directions for the treatment of each complaint, may be found in Ayer's American Almanac, of which we publish three millions, and scatter them broadcast over the earth, in order that the sick everywhere may have before them the information it contains.—Druggists and dealers in medicine generally have them for distribution gratis, and also for sale these remedies, prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER, Practical and Analytical Chemist, Lowell, Mass.

ARE YOU SICK?

Then you can't be cured too soon. Don't delay until your complaint is incurable, and then mourn when it is too late. Four-fifths of all the diseases which people the church yards, might be cured by Ayer's Cathartic Pills, if taken in season. Don't go dragging through the Spring, faint, sleepy and listless, because your blood is loaded with bile. Don't wear the Headache, Heartburn, and their kindred disorders, because the stomach is foul. Don't parade yourself around the world, covered with Pimples, Blotches, Ulcers, Sores, and all or any of the unclean diseases of the skin, because your system wants cleansing. Don't show yourself about, lean, haggard, all caved in, because your Stomach and Bowels need strengthening into healthy action.—Ayer's Pills set these things right as surely as water quenches fire. They purify the body and blood, and restore their functions into healthy activity which you can feel as quickly as they are taken.—They are the one great medical wonder of the age, recognized by all who know their virtues, and many thousands know them. Take the Cherry Pectoral for a cough, and the Pills for all derangements requiring a purgative medicine.

Prepared by JAMES C. AYER, Practical and Analytical Chemist, Lowell, Mass., and sold by JOHN RICE, Milwaukee, J. H. REED & CO., Chicago, and all Dealers in Medicine everywhere.
